

DIVI E PAPARAZZI / DIVAS AND PAPARAZZI

On Saturday 30 November 2024 at 5 pm, the first floor of Galleria Studio Cenacchi will once again host a selection of photographs by renowned photographers portraying the stars of the Dolce Vita era. Some of the photographs were recently exhibited at ArtVerona, where they attracted considerable public interest.

The entire collection of photographs of film stars from the 1950s and 1960s belongs to Fabrizio Tittocchia, born in 1960, who developed a passion for cinema at an early age. After more than forty years of working life, a few years before retirement, he began collecting film stills, with a particular focus on the Dolce Vita period.

His collection now comprises more than 300 photographs, including works by celebrated photographers such as Tazio Secchiaroli, Pierluigi Praturlon, Giovan Battista Poletto, Angelo Frontoni, Angelo Novi, Giancolombo, Velio Cioni, Rodrigo Pais, Michelangelo Durazzo, Glauco Cortini, Aldo Durazzi and others.

Some of the most iconic images from those years of Italian and international cinema can be seen at the gallery: Aïché Nana's famous striptease at the Rugantino nightclub in Rome on 5 November 1958; Vittorio Gassman and Catherine Spaak during the filming of Il sorpasso; and Anita Ekberg in *La dolce vita. These are presented alongside striking portraits of Alain Delon, Marcello Mastroianni, Virna Lisi, Raquel Welch and Audrey Hepburn.
